Fox-Hunters Near Close Of Field Meet And Bench Show At Appomattox This Week

Carl Patterson, of Lynchburg, Named New President of Association; Last Friday Morning Following Dance Tonight at Hotel

Carl Patterson, of Lynchburg, was named president of the Piedmont Fox Hunter's Association last night, during a business session of the second annual field trials and bench show of the association being held here this week.

Other officers named were: W. B. Blackwell, vice-president; J. M. Lewis, secretary-treasurer; directors: Whiting Davis, Amherst; A. Mitchell, Bedford; Joe LeGrand, Appomattox; J. N. Carter, Buckingham; W. E. Wright, Cumberland; V. H. Snell, Charlotte; Clyde Ellis, Prince Edward; D. H. Yancey, Halifax; Mrs. N. C. Carroll, Franklin; John W. Hancock, Roanoke; C. D. Fulton, Pittsylvania; C. D. Mundy, Giles; and W. C. Reeves, Dinwiddie.

The keys to Appomattox have been turned over to the fox hunters and the week has been one of sport and pleasure. The opening event was a cast of derby hounds.

Tuesday night on the court house lawn there was a horn-blowing contest, attended by over 300 people.

The contest was won by W. C. Blackwell over a field of about 20 entries, who tried their talents on a dozen or more hounds. Second place was taken by R. C. Hall and third place by Whitley Davis.

Senator S. L. Ferguson officially welcomed the guests to Appomattox and bade them make themselves at home.

An all-age cast was held early Wednesday morning. Over 60 dogs participated and each morning a merry chase resulted. Tonight there will be a dance at Hotel Appomattox in honor of the association, with music by Pat Taylor.

The bench show was a held Wednesday afternoon at the Appomattox Hotel. Exhibitors have been exhibiting this week in Charles F. James drug here and will be formally presented Friday.

It is understood that an invitation to hold their next meeting at Appomattox has been extended and perhaps will be accepted.

Back to the cars we went and circled around ahead to the far edge of the woods and then they disappeared into the woods, teaming, squirring, nosing to the ground, serious-minded.
